In making and reviewing these photographs, of what at first sight might seem bland buildings and vacant roads, I experienced that sometimes beauty and tragedy may co-exist. Visual correspondences occur in a movement throughout the book as the photographs are sequenced in pairs from highlighted contrasts along muted greys towards the darkest blacks. The pictures try to describe the thin line, as the poet Wallace Stevens has noted, between "the nothing that is not there and the nothing that is". It felt so damn good to be the second human being in the world to have slayed a shapeshifter. But the celebration was cut short. News of dead bodies dropping one by one in Appleton led me to discover there's another shapeshifter terrorizing the town, out for vengeance against me for killing its 'sibling.' The battle between me, Derek, and the shapeshifter pushes Derek and I to the edge and I'm left to fight the monster by myself... Until I thought I lost Derek for good, after which I realize I'd do anything, ANYTHING, to be with him for the rest of my life. "As I was seated in remembrance and contemplation one night, in front of me appeared a great stag, shining and shimmering in whiteness, and there was a concentration of brilliant white light above its head. The stag was some feet away and was moving toward me. As it got closer, I could see that the white light on its head was emanating from a flaming brand, a torch, lit, glowing with brilliant white star-like light. The flaming brand, 'qabas' in Quranic Arabic, was as if a projection from the top of its head. The stag came straight toward me, approached me until it was so near I could have reached out and touched it, and then the flaming brand that was on its head, was suddenly but so naturally, held by it in its mouth. The stag bowed its head and placed this flaming brand, this qabas at my feet, and disappeared. As this happened the following verse flashed through my mind, and I knew I had been given permission to spread the teachings that are coming to me, and I was given the name under which to do so; It is 'Qabas', a flaming brand; a torch for warmth and a light for guidance. Quran: surah 20, ayah 10When he saw a fire he said to his family, "tarry here, I have indeed perceived a fire maybe I can bring you from it a flaming brand or I can find guidance at the fire"This is the first volume in the four volume Qabas series. It collects 40 poems, composed of four series of 10 pieces each, that are collected for the blessing and spiritual state of the number 40. These poems were penned by the author during the years preceding her formal initiation into spiritual training. Works written during the beginning, middle, and end stages of her training comprise volumes 2, 3 and 4 in this series. A writer of lyric verse describes his experiences as a writer and editor, anthologist and poet. In the late '80s, members of the Democratic Leadership Council successfully moved the party's platform to the right by including a pro-business, pro-military, interventionist agenda, and downplaying social infrastructure as a calculated break from its New Deal-era foundation. This shift led to Bill Clinton's consecutive terms. 1996 captures this pivotal time in American politics and society through the experience of artists who completed their undergraduate studies in that year and voted for Clinton, and others who were born in 1996 and voted for the first time in 2016. Essays focus on cultural and ideological shifts from that time, such as the 1994 Crime Bill, 1996 Immigration Act, the Telecommunications Act, the start of Fox News and beyond.
