This against-all-odds story of a World War II era steam locomotive captures the determination of two generations of volunteers to keep it running. The narrative traces the train's regular freight service in Michigan, its unlikely salvation from the scrapyard, and the subsequent work to bring it back to steam. This is the tale of the revival of a significant steam locomotive and a triumph of historic preservation." Bell Harbor is a one-million copy bestselling series. Everyone in Bell Harbor thinks career-minded plastic surgeon Evelyn Rhoades needs a husband. Everyone, that is, except for Evelyn...sort of. Even if she did want a husband (which she doesn't...most of the time), she'd never let something as intangible as fate determine who she marries. No, if she's going to find someone to spend her life with, she'll do it scientifically: with a carefully crafted list of criteria and an Internet dating site. But when intoxicated, law-breaking Tyler Connelly crashes into her life by way of a stolen Jet Ski, unruly emotions defy common sense. Sure, he's sexy, charming, and determined to win Evelyn's affection, but all evidence points to him being the worst possible choice. He's too young for her. Too irresponsible. Too underemployed. And, oh yeah, he's her patient. But Tyler knows firsthand how the best-laid plans can crumble under the weight of destiny. Now all he needs to do is to teach Evelyn that, in matters of the heart, love often supersedes logic.

As the show season draws to an end, Noble Dreams Stable prepares for their tack swap and the annual awards. Will Eva win a trophy? Will Sara win again? And what happens when the two friends are in the same divisions next year? Zahra brings a new training project to Noble Dreams and Cora receives more than she ever imagined. As the year draws to a close, so much has changed, and so many new opportunities are coming in the new year. For the four friends and their partners and spouses, will the course be perfect? Or will unseen obstacles block their path?

Note: This book is part of the Noble Dreams Series. While each book in the series stands alone--including this one- you'll receive a fuller picture of the characters and their stories if you've read the previous books. This book completes the first story arc in the Noble Dreams series which encompasses all five books. From tragedies can come miracles! This is a true story about an experience that I had, that was about as close to a miracle that I could ever hope for. It was inspirational for me, and I hope that it will be inspirational for you too? We should take the holiday season to think about those who are gone, and to remember them. American Indians have a saying ... "When you speak the name of those that have passed-on, they live again through memories!" I hope that my story touches your heart.

Best in Show is a collection of photographs of well-groomed and award-winning dogs by New York City-based photographer Dolly Faibyshev. The images from the Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show and beyond focus on the unique—and often humorous—relationship between each dog and their handler. Dolly Faibyshev focuses on kitsch, irony, and the larger than life human and canine characters that make up Best in Show. The result is a colorful, vibrant, campy, and satirical take on this specific slice of Americana.

- The colorful, closely cropped juxtapositions of each coiffed canine contestant and their dedicated human are both humorous and charming.
- Sure to delight fans of all breeds of dogs
- A universal and ideal book for all canine lovers with a sense of humor

Best in Show captures a specific subculture of dog devotees primarily from the infamous Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show at Madison Square Garden in New York.

- A perfect book for anyone who is completely and totally obsessed with dogs and the

Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show • Photographers and contemporary art lovers will also love this celebration of Dolly Faibyshev's work • Great for fans of The Dogist: Photographic Encounters with 1,000 Dogs by Elias Weiss Friedman, Dogs by Lewis Blackwell and Tim Flach, and Underwater Dogs by Seth Casteel “The Bahamas are famous for sun, sand—and swimming pigs.” —National Geographic In the middle of paradise, with billionaires and celebrities for neighbors, is an island populated only by swimming pigs. For decades, this archipelago of 365 islands would remain largely unknown to the world. It would not be a ruthless pirate, pioneering loyalists, a notorious drug kingpin, or the infamous Fyre Festival that would unveil Exuma to the world, but rather the most unlikely of creatures. Appearing in magazines, videos, newspapers, commercials, TV shows, and countless selfies, the Swimming Pigs of Exuma, in the Bahamas, have become a bucket-list sensation and have been named one of the marvels of the universe. But how did they reach this celebrity status? What made them so famous? And why, in February 2017, did so many of them die? Pigs of Paradise is an unlikely story of humble beginnings and a swift rise to stardom. With interviews from historians, world-renowned ecologists, famous pig owners, and boat captains, it thoughtfully considers what this phenomenon says about not only these animals but also about us. Now in Paperback: The harrowing adventure-at-sea memoir ("Terrific."-Daniel James Brown) recounting the 2013 search-and-rescue mission for lost Montauk fisherman John Aldridge. 5:14 a.m. I am floating in the middle of the night, and nobody in the world even knows I am missing. Nobody is looking for me. You can't get more alone than that. You can't be more lost. I've got too many people who love me. There's no way I'm dying like this. In the dead of night on July 24, 2013, John Aldridge was thrown off the back of the Anna Mary while his fishing partner, Anthony Sosinski, slept below. As desperate hours ticked by, Sosinski, the families, the local fishing community, and the U.S. Coast Guard in three states mobilized in an unprecedented search effort that culminated in a rare and exhilarating success. A tale of survival, perseverance, and community, A Speck in the Sea tells of one man's struggle to survive as friends and strangers work to bring him home. Aldridge's wrenching first-person account intertwines with the narrative of the massive, constantly evolving rescue operation designed to save him. SELOC Marine tune-up and repair manuals provide the most comprehensive, authoritative information available for outboard, inboard and stern-drive engines, as well as personal watercraft. SELOC has been the leading source of how-to information for the marine industry since 1974. Designed and written to serve the needs of the professional mechanic, do-it-yourself boat enthusiast, instructor and student, these manuals are based on actual teardowns done by Seloc's editors/authors in our on-site facility. Every manual features: -Easy-to-follow, step-by-step, illustrated procedures -Hundreds of exploded drawings, photographs and tables -Troubleshooting sections - Accurate specifications and wiring diagrams Covers all engines and drive units, including transmissions. Includes carbureted and fuel injected engines. Over 1,000 illustrations. Postcards, photographs, matchbook covers, buttons, advertisements, real estate brochures -- and much more. The author has been collecting anything and everything pertaining to Rockaway Beach, New York, for the past seventy years -- and that's what this volume is all about. Here is a plethora of souvenirs and memorabilia amassed over one individual's lifetime. This is the largest and most complete historical journal ever published by this author. "Rockaway Beach, New York in Souvenirs and Memorabilia" includes representations of artifacts dating back before the turn of the 20th Century -- but also features additional materials relating to the last 120 years. Recent events such as the creation of high-rise apartments replacing a defunct shopping center in the hub of Far Rockaway and the loss of the Park Theatre building in Rockaway Park -- are captured here in photo detail. As inclusive as possible, this is a fun book -- actually a historical journal which is of interest and value -- a tome to be enjoyed over and over again by anyone who ever had any relationship to Rockaway Beach. A guided tour of the world's best sailboats with an entertaining expert at your side. With over 100,000 copies sold, these volumes have become invaluable reference for sailors and would-be sailors alike. Using 400 magnificent color photographs and black-and-white illustrations per volume, Máté analyzes the designs and construction methods of the 30 best boat-builders in the world, builders who have, over the years, consistently shown the highest quality and most creative innovation. He visited boatyards in Europe, Canada, and the United States, for his scrupulous firsthand survey. While revealing the secrets of the best builders, he lucidly demonstrates what makes these boats the best, furnishing knowledge that can then be applied while choosing any sailboat of whatever make. Besides the perennial classics of Alden, Baltic, Hinckley and Swan, are new entries like the super-fast J-Boats and super luxurious Oysters. The color photographs are benchmarks in nautical publishing, while the writing is thoughtful, hugely informative and always entertaining. "Covers all 2.5-350 HP, 1-4 cylinder, V6 and V8 4-stroke models. Includes jet drives. Wiring diagrams."--Cover. Financial reporting is becoming more onerous and complex, particularly for listed companies. Accounting scandals have led to a greater regulatory focus on the role of audit committees and non-executive directors, and risk management and internal control put the finance director under new and more stringent pressures. Tolley's Finance Directors Handbook is a comprehensive guide to the huge range of duties that the modern finance director now undertakes. Tolley's Finance Directors Handbook 3rd edition provides extensive coverage of financial operations. Detailed sections are devoted to audit, cashflow management, corporate transactions, financial reporting, management accounting, taxation and risk management.
