Film Sound in Italy Nov 21 2019 A critical engagement with cinema in Italy, this book examines the national archive of film based on sound and listening using a holistic audio-visual approach. Sisto shifts the sensory paradigm of film history and analysis from the optical to the sonic, demonstrating how this translates into a shift of canonical narratives and interpretations.

Una e una notte Nov 14 2021 «I due racconti di questo libro sono le facce di una stessa medaglia ... Un po' di esperienza ci insegna che pari e dispari sono segnati sullo stesso dado e che il dramma e la farsa accompagnano a vicenda un personaggio indeciso o semplicemente mediocre». Lo stesso Flaiano ha fornito, con queste parole, la migliore presentazione di "Una e una notte", i cui protagonisti appaiono come il diritto e il rovescio di un unico Io disperso, scettico e malinconico. Cronista-praticante svogliato e velleitario, scrittore inedito affetto da una vera ripugnanza per la pagina bianca, seduttore disastrosamente maldestro che solo la «tacita e canina ammirazione» della squillo Botton Zelinda in arte Dory Nelson rasserena, Graziano viene attirato da un'aliena docile e impassibile su un'astronave approdata a Fiumicino. Astronave quanto mai domestica, simile a un «padiglione da fiera» o a uno «spremilimoni di vetro» – perché nell'esistenza di un «vitellone» come Graziano lo straordinario non può che mutarsi in ordinario, l'avventura in disavventura, e il catulliano "Nox est perpetua" in «un ideale di scultorea pigrizia». Scontentezza e noia irrequieta segnano invece Adriano, scrittore cui tutto appare ormai «senza peso, evitabile, noioso» e che da Roma ci conduce al santuario dove un amico regista sta girando gli esterni di un film (è il Fellini delle "Notti di Cabiria"), nella solitudine del litorale dove più si percepisce «la calma, la profonda voluttà del tempo», nell'agro dove l'immobilità dei secoli è ormai contaminata dalla sciatteria e dalla bruttezza – nel vano tentativo di scrutare da naturalista «una vita che ha le sue miserie ma anche un segreto che si apre solo a chi vi partecipa fino in fondo».

Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies Feb 23 2020 The Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies is a two-volume reference book containing some 600 entries on all aspects of Italian literary culture. It includes analytical essays on authors and works, from the most important figures of Italian literature to little known authors and works that are influential to the field. The Encyclopedia is distinguished by substantial articles on critics, themes, genres, schools, historical surveys, and other topics related to the overall subject of Italian literary studies. The Encyclopedia also includes writers and subjects of contemporary interest, such as those relating to journalism, film, media, children's literature, food and vernacular literatures. Entries consist of an essay on the topic and a bibliographic portion listing works for further reading, and, in the case of entries on individuals, a brief biographical paragraph and list of works by the person. It will be useful to people without specialized knowledge of Italian literature as well as to scholars.

The Eloquence of Ghosts Dec 23 2019 Giorgio Manganelli (1922-1990), one of Italy's most radical and original writers, went further than most in exploring the creative possibilities of hybrid genres and open forms. Ostentation, theatricality, and a love of drapery and verbal excess are defining features of his body of work, which ranges from prose fiction, literary criticism, and drama to travel writing, treatises, commentaries, and imaginary interviews. This study examines the wealth of Manganelli's imagination - his grotesque animals, speaking corpses, and melancholy spectres - and argues that his spectacular eloquence was shaped by an exceptional awareness of literary and philosophical models. Following Manganelli's lead, the author addresses issues such as the boundaries of meaningful language, the relationship between literary and visual texts, fantasy and realism, and the power of literature to express the apprehensions and intimations of human consciousness.

Italian Literature: Il tristano panciatichiano Nov 02 2020 The Arthurian Archives series of texts and editions in translation, edited by Norris J. Lacy, makes a start on Italian Arthurian material, with a 14c Tristan text. This is the first critical edition with English translation of the prose compilation Tristano panciatichiano, preserved in a unique manuscript in the Biblioteca Nazionale of Florence (MS Panc. 33); it is the first time the Italian text has been published in its entirety in any form.

Assembled by the mid-fourteenth century, the manuscript is an original compilation in Italian based on several French models: the Queste del San Graal, Josephd'Arimathie, the Mort Artu, and notably, the Roman de Tristan en prose. While the edition itself will be of great interest, the translation into English is a major opportunity for Arthurians and other medievalists, and furnishes important new evidence for the study of Arthurian material in Italy. Apparatus includes a finding list of Arthurian manuscripts produced, owned or read by Italians; a select bibliography; and an index of proper names found in the narrative.

The World of Sicilian Wine Oct 01 2020 The World of Sicilian Wine provides wine lovers with a comprehensive understanding of Sicilian wine, from its ancient roots to its modern evolution. Offering a guide and map to exploring Sicily, Bill Nesto, an expert in Italian wine, and Frances Di Savino, a student of Italian culture, deliver a substantive appreciation of a vibrant wine region that is one of Europe's most historic areas and a place where many cultures intersect. From the earliest Greek and Phoenician settlers who colonized the island in the eighth century B.C., the culture of wine has flourished in Sicily. A parade of foreign rulers was similarly drawn to Sicily's fertile land, sun-filled climate, and strategic position in the Mediterranean. The modern Sicilian quality wine industry was reborn in the 1980s and 1990s with the arrival of wines made with established international varieties and state-of-the-art enology. Sicily is only now rediscovering the quality of its indigenous grape varieties, such as Nero d'Avola, Nerello Mascalese, Frappato, Grillo, and distinctive terroirs such as the slopes of Mount Etna.

A Certain Realism Apr 26 2020 Pier Paolo Pasolini (1922-1975) was arguably the most complex director of postwar Italian cinema. His films—Accattone, The Canterbury Tales, Medea, Saló—continue to challenge and entertain new generations of moviegoers. A leftist, a homosexual, and a distinguished writer of fiction, poetry, and criticism, Pasolini once claimed that "a certain realism" informed his filmmaking. Masterfully combining analyses of Pasolini's literary and theoretical writings and of all his films, Maurizio Viano offers the first thorough study of Pasolini's cinematic realism, in theory and in practice. He finds that Pasolini's cinematic career exemplifies an "expressionistic realism" that acknowledges its subjective foundation instead of striving for an impossible objectivity. Focusing on the personal and expressionistic dimensions of Pasolini's cinema, Viano also argues that homosexuality is present in the films in ways that critics have thus far failed to acknowledge. Sure to generate controversy among film scholars, Italianists, and fans of the director's work, this accessible film-by-film treatment is an ideal companion for anyone watching Pasolini's films on video.

The Scandal of Self-contradiction Dec 03 2020 Pier Paolo Pasolini (1922-1975) was both a writer and filmmaker deeply rooted in European culture, as well as an intellectual who moved between different traditions, identities and positions. Early on he looked to Africa and Asia for possible alternatives to the hegemony of Western Neocapitalism and Consumerism, and in his hands the Greek and Judeo-Christian Classics morphed into unsettling multistable figures constantly shifting between West and East, North and South, the present and the past, rationality and myth, identity and otherness. The contributions in this volume, which belong to different intellectual and disciplinary fields, are bound together by a fascination for Pasolini's ability to recognize contradictions, to intensify and multiply them, as well as to make them aesthetically and politically productive. What emerges is a "euro-centric" and multifaceted Pasolini of great interest for the present.

Le mille e una notte* Jan 16 2022 Da un codice del XIII secolo René Khawam ha recuperato un gioiello della letteratura araba. È il testo che gli studiosi giudicano "il più antico e il migliore", lo stesso che leggevano i califfi, i visir, i mercanti e le donne dei grandi secoli della civiltà araba. Libero da aggiunte arbitrarie, contaminazioni, interventi e censure, nella sua forma autentica Le mille e una notte riacquista il suo fascino originario. A tessere questa sterminata e labirintica trama di storie è Shahrazâd, eroina del racconto che fa da cornice alla raccolta, e affascinante odalisca penetrata da secoli nell'immaginario occidentale. Per scampare alla condanna dello spietato re Shahriyâr, che intende vendicare sulle vergini del suo regno il tradimento subito, Shahrazâd sfrutta le doti dell'affabulazione offrendogli notte dopo notte racconti straordinari, rinchiusi l'uno nell'altro come in un sistema di scatole cinesi. Rapito dalla magia della narrazione, e dal fascino della cantastorie, il sovrano dimentica le ragioni dell'odio e annulla la condanna. Le parole di Giorgio Manganelli presentano e interpretano in modo originalissimo il lavoro dei traduttori
